

Circuit croisière Ibis

Du 17/04 au 29/04/2018

©Pierre-yves DENIZOT / 2018 - <http://pierreyvesdenizot.free.fr/>

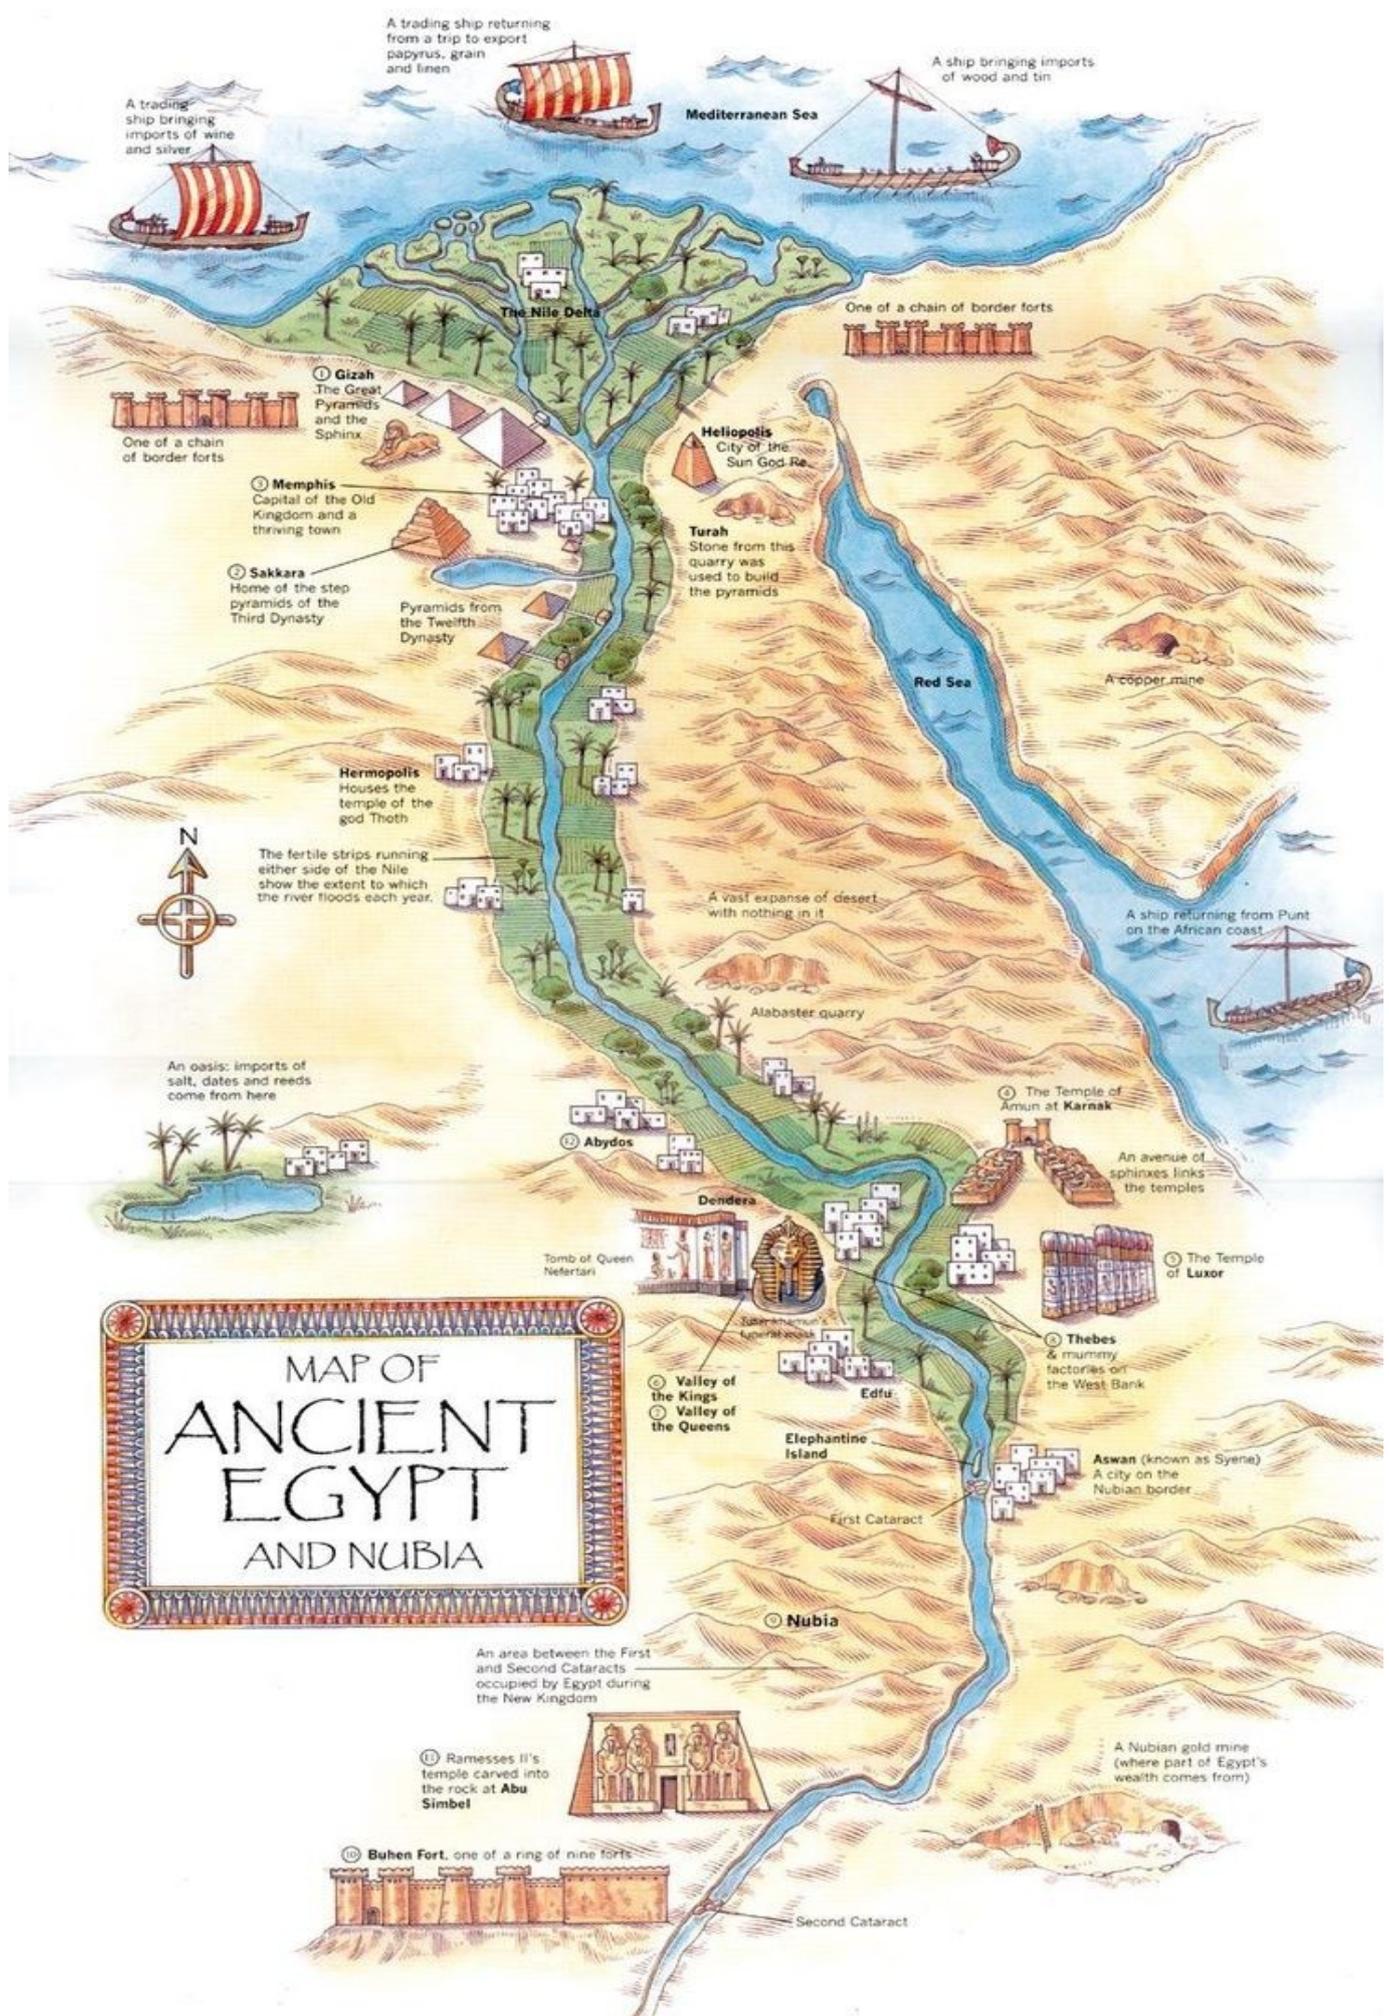

Document A : plan général des lieux historiques en Egypte

- | | | | |
|--|----------------------|---|-----------|
|  | Désert |  | Capitales |
|  | Terres fertiles |  | Pyramides |
|  | Régions montagneuses |  | Temples |

MAP OF ANCIENT EGYPT
AND NUBIA

A trading ship bringing imports of wine and silver

A trading ship returning from a trip to export papyrus, grain and linen

A ship bringing imports of wood and tin

One of a chain of border forts

1 Gizah
The Great Pyramids and the Sphinx

3 Memphis
Capital of the Old Kingdom and a thriving town

2 Sakkara
Home of the step pyramids of the Third Dynasty

Pyramids from the Twelfth Dynasty

Hermopolis
Houses the temple of the god Thoth

The fertile strips running either side of the Nile show the extent to which the river floods each year.

An oasis: imports of salt, dates and reeds come from here

Mediterranean Sea

The Nile Delta

One of a chain of border forts

Heliopolis
City of the Sun God Ra

Turah
Stone from this quarry was used to build the pyramids

Red Sea

A copper mine

A ship returning from Punt on the African coast

A vast expanse of desert with nothing in it

Alabaster quarry

4 Abydos

5 The Temple of Amun at Karnak

An avenue of sphinxes links the temples

6 The Temple of Luxor

Tomb of Queen Nefertari

7 Valley of the Kings
8 Valley of the Queens

9 Thebes & mummy factories on the West Bank

Edfu

Elephantine Island

Aswan (known as Syene)
A city on the Nubian border

First Cataract

Nubia

An area between the First and Second Cataracts occupied by Egypt during the New Kingdom

11 Ramesses II's temple carved into the rock at Abu Simbel

A Nubian gold mine (where part of Egypt's wealth comes from)

10 Behen Fort, one of a ring of nine forts

Second Cataract